FUNERAL OF WM. GREGORY. - The funeral of the late William Gregory took place from his home, on Washington, corner of Princess street, this morning, at 10 o'clock, and was largely attended by our best citizens. The services took place at the late home of the deceased, Rev. Mr. Dinwiddie, of the 2nd Presbyterian Church, assisted by R v. Mr. Hubbard, of the Episcopal Church, otherating. Mr. D., after reading an appropriate selection from the Scriptures, said he was often amazed at the manner in which many professing Christians regarded death. "Death was ours," and while patural sorrow could but have its way, it was in truth to the Christian a time of rejoicing. He had been thinking of the Catacombs at Rome, where the early Christians sepulchred their dead. On their tombs were no mourning sentences, but exultant expressions of the faith which saw the dead brought to life in Jesus and at rest. They put on white garments at the tomb. How could Christians call death "the King of Terrors." The Prince of life had died. Was death King of Terrors then? And did not every Christian die in Christ who took the sting from death. There was, indeed, more of heathen thought than of Christian faith in the ordinary lamentation for the dead. The death of the Christian was the opening of the door of life and light eternal. He spoke in this strain for sometime. At the | Job office. conclusion of the services the remains were placed in the hearse, the following gentlemen acting as pall-bearers: W. H. Marbury, J. W. Burke, W. J. Boothe, C. F. Suttle, F. L. Smith, James M. Stewart, A. McLean, and Andrew Jamieson. The remains were followed to the grave by a long train, and were interred in the Presbyterian Cemetery.

CATHOLIC TEMPERANCE SOCIETY. - An adjourned meeting of gentlemen who propose to form a Catholic Total Abstinence Society in this city, was held last night at the student's meeting room of St. John's Academy, on Prince street. A constitution was adopted similar to that of like societies in other cities, except that the beneficial feature was omitted, associations already established providing amply for that object. It was agreed that all those present at the meeting and such others as desired to join them would take the pledge from the pastor of St. Mary's Church, next Sunday morning, at 9 o'clock, and the meeting adjourned to St. Mary's Hall at that time.

ALMOST A FIRE. - Last night about 9 o'clock the kitchen chimney of the house occupied by Peiere Arnaud, a French barber, on King street, near Henry, was found to be on fire, and very soon the woolen fire-board caught and communicated the flames to the kitchen floor, a small portion of which was burned. No alarm was sounded, and the fire was extinguished by those who were in the house at the time. There had been no fire in the kitchen stove since five c'clock in the afternoon, and it is supposed a spark then fell into some rubbish in the fireplace and smouldered there until the flames broke out as above stated.

INCREASE IN THE COAL TRADE BY THE CANAL.-Notwithstanding the unpropitious opening of the coal trade on the canal this year it now appears that the coal tonnage will be larger this year than ever before. The Cumberland News says: "The production of the Cumberland coal region for the year 1875 to Saturday, July 10, was 1,122,542 11 tons, a decrease of 28,084 03, as compared with the corresponding period of 1874. This falling off was caused by the decrease in the shipments by rail, the shipments by canal showing an increase of 26,548.16, as compared with the corresponding period of last year.'
